

Digital Memories

A work in progress project by Toniolo middle school & LabCD

Aim of the project

Create an archive of interviews taken to elderly relatives speaking about facts of the past.

Topic chosen: school in the past

Participants

Laboratorio di Cultura Digitale

Toniolo Middle students - 3 classes, 6th grade

Secondary students - alternanza scuola lavoro (stage at LabCD)

A project of Public History

Laboratorio di Cultura Digitale has an expertise in gathering digital memories

Area of research: public history (a branch of history), invented archives, digital humanities

Workflow

- 1. Students and teachers discuss in class the topic of the interview and decide the questions
- 2. Register interviews as homework (most of the interviews were taken during Christmas holidays family time)
- 3. Video editing
- 4. Fill a form with data about the interview (when it was taken, name of interviewer, name of interviewed, release form) to create an historical primary source
- 5. Internationalization: translation and subtitling for sharing with European partners
- 6. Final video editing in LabCD
- 7. Publication on "A Digital Journey in Europe" website

Benefits for students

Discussion in class

Students participate actively

Alternative history lesson

Wise use of digital devices

Communication through generations

Improve technical skills (interviewing, video editing, website editing, translation)
